

Understanding History, Culture and Identity through Memory

Monday, 4 October, 7.00 – 8.30 pm,
Woodlands Regional Library

goheritage

Together with the U.S. Embassy and Public Libraries Singapore, Ms Debra Boyd, an American expert on African-American Studies, will be giving a talk on the importance of memory, understanding one's history, culture and how identities are formed.

About the Speaker

Ms Debra Boyd, a former American Fulbrighter, is currently the Associate Professor of French and Chair, Department of Modern Foreign Languages, at North Carolina Central University.

